What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am very passionate about the culinary arts industry, as I am an artist by nature & I am focused on reaching my goal of becoming a professional chef. I can work in a bar as well as front of the house. I am a hardworking individual whom is always willing to learn new skills from others and also share my skills with others as well. I am a teachable team player with leadership, communication and problem solving skills. I am a diversity & multilingual person. I am willing to start at junior up to management level with the relevant training and mentorship within the establishment. I may not have enough experience in a professional kitchen as I was trained in a retail store bakery but I will take any opportunity to work in a kitchen.
