What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I’m a self driven, confident & well spoken marketing & sales agent. Who has spent 5 years in the industry not only marketing products but also help in developing and putting products in the market for both companies and also clients.

I believe in good customer care because without customers there is no market for thriving the goods or services provided by the company. Therefore good. Customer service are basic necessity to the company and having a person like who both have marketing skills and good customer service your company is set to do tremendously good in the market.
