What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a job as an administrator or sales rep, I am currently unemployed and have dependants to take care of, I am a hard working, committed, energetic young woman who loves challenges. Am also a good problem solver and like working within teams so as to grow as an individual within the company.... I think I deserve to be hired because I know more about customer service ad I have once worked for the TFG company(@homelivingspace) in fourways., My supervisor was always happy about my commitment to my job as I have never let them down in terms of punctuality and attendance.
