What job i'm looking for? My positive points

The kind of job that would be best for someone like me is working with people (customers/prospects) simply because of my personality. Being a warm and polite person makes it easier for me to interact even though i am also an introvert but i should think my persona also comes to light in a team work environment because for me to be an introvert it means i am able to listen to what the orther person has to say instead of being the "bossy" type of person especially in a working environment so i believe these characteristics would be a great asset in any company.
