Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Who would have thought that Covid-19 would have so much and effect and change to things, even peoples work. As I have been home this year I took time out to actually think about what I want to do and how I can use my skills in a effective way.

Transparency, reflection, and mindfulness are part of my daily routine. I would enjoy working remotely with a company. as having administration and a customer service representative background, I can bring positivity to my teammates, even if it requires some out-of-the-box thinking. I consider myself a lifelong learner and always strive to make progress in life, both personally and professionally. I regularly take on a growth mindset to make small improvements every day. I'm one who is fully engaged in tasks at hand and am eager to learn new programs, processes, and procedures through daily practice.

As a multi-tasking, stay-at-home parent, I am ready to jump right into remote work. I'm eager to bring my unique work history to a company, that values teamwork and self-improvement. I welcome the opportunity to interview for this position at your earliest convenience.
