What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Im a qualified mechanical fitter, but have a wide knowledge of boilermaking/welding/machining. So basically I'm a person who can do all the above mentioned exactly like a qualified artisan can. I just do not have papers for it but willing to do whatever I'm asked to do or need to do for a job to get done or reach its target. I can do all types of welding, turning and machining (milling). Structural and developing.
