

Neliswa Joko

Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

My name is Neliswa Joko, presently a graduate in Psychology and Child and Youth Development. I am writing to apply for the general worker position. As a new graduate I am not much experienced but I learnt a lot from my experience as being a sales person in 2018. During my time as a sales person, I've honed my people skills and I improved my ability to work effectively in high-pressure situations. I'm confident that my proven track record of excellent work ethic, unparalleled attention to detail, and high-performing communication skills will make me an immediate asset, and will allow me to contribute to the team's success.

I am incredibly organized with an affinity for detail. My pleasant persona allows me to greet clients and communicate with people with ease. I am familiar and comfortable with working in a high-pressure environment and I am always willing to learn; I'm also a fast learner. Past supervisors have complimented me on my ability to easily grasp information. As someone who aspires to becoming a clinical psychologist, I see this position as fit for me to learn and show my ability of interacting respectfully and courteously with people. It would be a pleasure to join the company so I could demonstrate my professionalism, knowledge as well as learn more. I would appreciate the chance to discuss this position and my abilities with you in more detail. Thank you for your consideration.
