What job i'm looking for? My positive points

It takes me some time to adjust into a new position in every aspect of my life, so there is a higher possibility of you having a long term employee. I never felt the edge to improve my situation because i have managed to build a working coping mechanism of not moving around, So this is an advantage in disguise as the skills i will have attained from working in your company wont be lost. I usually keep to myself so there is a chance that i will master the way of doing my job in a less amount of time, Although this was not perfect job i had imagined it would give me an opportunity to be more adaptable and who knows what could lay at the other side. I would be grateful if you give me the opportunity to better myself while contributing to something greater than the sum of my self.
