What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a sales consultant job. I am very hardworking and willing to work overtime on weekends and on a public holiday if my workload is too much. Since 2004 I was studying marketing management at Boland college Paarl but then I had to drop out due to money issues at home but I had enough experience and I also did a practical in sales at Ackermans in Piketberg 2005. But I was always sales driven even when I was younger and I will give my best if you give me a chance to show you
