What job i'm looking for? My positive points

From a very young age I have always loved working with numbers and solving problems. I mean not a lot of people why solving for x is so fascinating. Being able to see there's something is wrong and having the mission to find out where the problem is and how does one fix it. That's Finance for me. In the working world it might nit look as glamorous as i have said in the beginning but one thing for sure is, there's always a way to solve the problem. Working the Finance department i have learnt to learn quick, to be observant and be willing to learn as there's always something new to learn. My willingness to learn has also taught me not only to rely on my managers and supervisors, but to also go back to my books and research more about the work i am doing. That way you get to understand things easier and get to grasp concepts quicker.

When it comes to my work, i put in all my effort in making sure that work is done correctly and done on time. As i have stated before i am a quick learner and also a team player. I do enjoy both working with people and working alone. I believe that team work makes the dream work.

I hope one day i become more than just an Accountant or Finance Officer, but a manager, or even own my own Finance service provider firm. I believe that I am your best candidate and that having me will not only be best for me but also best for you.

Thank you
