What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Previously I was employed by the EPWP for five years and I was the supervisor for the whole ward 2. I am a good listener, good communicator in both verbal and writing, good team player, punctual always willing to go an extra mile and also willing to learn new things at all times as things keep changing. The reason why I should be hired is that I need to give my children better life that I did and I can see that it's getting late for me been working for part time I really need a permanent job to fulfill my dreams.
