What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am submitting this letter to apply for a Driver position with your company. I feel that my skills as a driver as well as my customer service skills would make me a valuable employee to your company and I would bring an enthusiasm to the job.

I would like to summarize my qualifications as described in detail on my attached resume:

- I have more than 15 years experience in the delivery driving industry and I have a proven track record for getting my deliveries done safely and on time.
- My driving record is perfect and I hold the proper licensing for driving a delivery truck or van.
- I work hard to build a great rapport with the clients on my route and many of them know me by name and consider me to be polite, professional and courteous.
