What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm currently a student at Central University Technology, I'm willing to volunteer to just get exposure to the field. I feel the technical skill I'm currently acquiring at CUT are not enough. I also have the ability to work with different teams and I can work under pressure. I'm doing my first year but I already know my which field I want to take part in. I'm just willing to get the exposure to the field.
