What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Looking for a job as a security officer I have worked for a company for 4 years so I've been to the industry and I have an experience, I was working for a certain company in Joburg and my duties were as follows: searching employees, checking goods at dispatch before going out to be delivered, checking incoming goods, approving of invoice, patrolling the premises and making sure that everything in the company is under control. I am now 48 years but in good health and I'm willing to go an extra mile and I am dedicated when it comes to my work, I'm somebody with an open minded at all times
