What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am a loyal, honest person that value relationships. I take pride in the work that I do and the company and people I surround myself with. This is why I will always make sure that I understand the work I do and how it impacts the business and those around me. I believe that good teamwork and a healthy company culture contributes largely to a successful and gratifying working environment. This is why I do not hesitate to take on tasks that are outside my scope of work to support my greater team.
