What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a job that i will work Monday to Friday. I am a person who is very liable on my job and willing to grow within a company and very committed to my job that is why i have worked for more than 10 years in my current work place without any warning. I adapt to changes very well and want to be challenged o that i can learn and grow. working under pressure is what i am use to because my current work has too much pressure and you have to cope and focus so that you can not feel that pressure.
