What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am not really choosy i am just looking for any job available. I am can read and write english and speak english at the same time and very well. I have acces to internet aswell. I am a hard worker who can work can do extra hours just to make sure that the job is done correctly. I have an experience in the working environment i started working at Ackermans store while i was at school the after Matric went to work ar boxer superstore than later left work to start my own business which it didn't started well due to covid hence ive decided to look for employment again.
