What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for a job for being a Receptionist since at school I'm doing Office Administration. So I need a job that would pay me extremely well and I never work before I'm still a student which means I'm doing level 3 this year at Maluti TVET College. The position it's allows me to not play with data, but also present my findings and suggestions directly to clients and also I have a good heart towards people and I treat people they way they treat me and also I like to communicate with people give them some advice, working together it encourage me to learn more things in future because as teamwork we share different ideas that would build our future working with people its does help me a lot.
