What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for a data entry job or typing jobs that i can do as well.

Preferably a job that i can do at home because i am a stay at hom mom and don't want to risk my child's health with COVID by putting her in to school, since she is still a baby.

My positive points are that i work fast and submit work on time. I always follow instructions given to me as what needs to be done according to the work given.
