What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am a student at Tswane University of technology and I have a higher certificate in marketing and sales at the University of Johannesburg. I have also worked on a school project called the DSA where I had to sell products that received from Table Charm which I did for 1 year. There is also a retail business at home, which I worked there for 5 years on weekends, so I know how to treat customers.
