What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for a Technician job, I have a Trade test for Air Craft Structures. I can do any Sheet Metal work at any given time and place for any given project. I did my Trade Test with South African Airways Technical, I've been an Apprentice student for Denel Aviation which sponsored all my courses and OJT expenses. I've just qualified on the 25th and 26th of July 2022. Your help will be highly appreciated.
