What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Being a cabin crew member has always been a dream of mine and being part of the team would be something words could never describe. One of my best traits has always been me being good with people from the youngest to the oldest I have a very welcoming and warm spirit. I am a very clean person I believe in clean spaces to attract positive energy. I'm very disciplined, polite and well spoken. I am a born leader, something that always stands out, I love and enjoy taking the role of a leader naturally getting things done on time and a bit of a perfectionist at times. I'm always and willing to learn and adapting to change quickly. I'm a team player I believe team work makes dream work. I'm computer literate even did IT in high school. Telephone etiquette, able to work under pressure and one of my weaknesses has always been unable to say no to helping people overall hiring me guarantees the company that I will be an asset and I will work for the better good of the company. Thank you.
