What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I was employed as a senior constable at the Durban Metro Police Services from 2010 to 2019. I have acquired a lot of experience in the security cluster for the past nine (09) years which also includes VIP protection duties. I am a very dedicated employee and I am willing to work long hours when necessary. This field over the past years has taught me to be a hard worker, to be committed and highly disciplined, this gives me confidence that my qualities and characteristics will inevitably add value to your company. I would highly appreciate it to be given an opportunity to offer my skills. I am a proactive team member who can also work independently.
