Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

In the near future I inspire to be an Environmental Scientist because I am passionate about the well-being of the environment as far as development is concerned in our country, I believe that we should utilize the environment and its resources having in mind the concept of sustainable development, of cause for the benefit of the present and future generation. I am therefore concerned about the balance between environment and economy because I believe that it should be maintained and the environment should not be compromised.
