What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for any electrical job where i can fully use ma skills obtained through apprenticeship.i am a qualified electrician (trade test).I am keen in learning more in the industry,i am a hardworking person and a team player.If i dont understand something i prefer to ask for assistance than being stubborn on something i dont know.I also hate failure,if i fail on something id seek more information regarding the task.I have done motor testing,panel fault finding,house wiring,db wiring,pump installation (submissible pump),fittings and plugs...Id really appreciate any possible opportunity
