Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Am an independent research analyst and an innovative Bachelor of Science Honours (Geology) graduate who is more concerned about integrating theoretical knowledge in the mining, renewable energy, and petroleum industries.

I mostly aspire and dream of being employed in an entry-level position that suits my qualifications and skills. My research interests were based on the field of exploration and geochemistry, hence my Geology Honours project focused mainly on "focusing on the heavy minerals of the Beaufort Group in the Coast of East London, Eastern Cape, South Africa." A provenance study using heavy minerals 2020 I enjoyed a great deal on how exploration was and learned different methods of sampling and preparation of samples in my project.

I'm applying for this opportunity so that I can develop my knowledge and skills to be able to apply for the first work experience that is needed. I am a mature, well-focused, dedicated person who is a sincere, hard-working person and devoted to his studies and work. I have a combination of computer software, research, presentation, teamwork and leadership skills. I have experience of working in a logistics company with my aunt, with whom she helped me with the fees during my study period. I worked for a year developing new skills and knowledge. Therefore, I'm ready to be employed in any internship, graduate programme, entry level, or any kind of employment that will meet my qualifications and bring out the best in me. I am available to relocate, keen to work as soon as possible, and immediately available to work
