What job i'm looking for? My positive points

The important thing i love about mining is that they working on production.production encourage people to work hard becoise if the production is low there is no bonus and no body wants to go home witout money at the end of the month.in my previous compang we were concentrating more on meeting weekly target and reaching monthly budget so we will so hard so that you obtain all goal so that you smile all your way the bank at the end of the month.i was a team leader but i cant say im applying for a team leader now becoise the field is different.i will be happy anywhere you place me.
