What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Chemical operator

I have obtained level3 in Chemical Operations with 2 years experience on a work field, I am reliable and I am a hard worker but when I am up against time I can work smart, I know how to manage challenges effectively and always make a plan to cope with difficulties when working under pressure without by passing any procedures because safety always comes first. I think you would find me a valuable worker as I like to dedicate myself in every work I do or any kind of task I am given to do. I follow up in every task I am given, to deliver in time and impress the customer if I am required to do a batch .I love working on a clean and safe environment, I believe housekeeping plays an imperative part on our working environment to be safe and healthy. I believe working as a team is what drives the company to be more successful.
