What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I enjoy working as part of a team, so one thing that I am targeting in my next position is a collaborative, team-focused environment. Based on what I have observed from researching about mining work companies and reviewing the job description, it sounds like that's the type of work culture I have been practicing and also promote by so many companies with the aim of the organizational performance , so I'm excited to learn more about the opportunity as I apply for this position.
