What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for a job at Petrol Station. I feel like it's a healthy working environment according to the way I see the employees engage with their customers . A healthy working environment makes employees happy. I'm currently working at retail store so I'm good with customer services, I have 3 years experience of working with people so I know what customers expect from a person working with people everyday. I'm a hard worker and I can work under pressure.
