What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for an opportunity of becoming more recognisable in the retail industry by learning more and having more experience that will help me grow and one day have my own retail store.

My positive points are getting an opportunity of working at a place it must be something that you enjoy and are passionate about so that I won't be finding myself unhappy and giving bad service to people.

As I have worked in the retail industry for 2 to 3 years I have my own natural skills and others I learned from my previous work. Working as a team and being a leader is one of the skills I have and serving customers polite and solving problems and how to handle an unsatisfied customer with good communication skills I have. Making sure we run a shift in a clean place and making the customers feel welcomed.

I have learned a lot from the retail industry and I'm willing to show my best when given the opportunity.

Thank you.
