What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I do not have a specific job. But due to my experience I enjoy working in a sales environment, because the environment is challenging and allows one to grow. I'm a very bubbly individual and looking for an environment that will allow me to grow and implement my skills. With the 4+ years of experience I have in sales I think I can manage any hard challenge that come my way, and being a calm person who can work under pressure and multi task I think those qualities will help me manage those hard challenges. I work well within a team but can also work independently.
