What job i'm looking for? My positive points

The certain job I'm looking for is stoping labourer, basic winch erecting, paperwork and more physical jobs. If there is any job besides the ones mentioned above. I suggest any kind of job available will suit me because we learn to know and I promise I'll do it with passion because the aim is to see the company production increasing everyday. To be honest with you I prefer handwork jobs and I'm very much excellent in that.
