What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Herewith I send an application letter and curriculum vitae regarding job application.

I am confident that my skills and experiences in my studies could make a great contribution in your work place . I am always willing to learn and to give my full best at all times.

In my previous work experience I have learnt a great deal about working with various different individuals. For the past several years, I have always followed the work ethicks.

I do realize that my resume or curriculum vitae that I have submitted cannot fully explain my skills and experiences in depth. Therefore I really hope there in is an opportunity for an interview, which I can explain how the potential in me will be a tremendous asset in the work environment.
