Gololosego Kgomo Cover Letter

I Completed Bankseta training for Risk Assessment and Management for personal bankers in 2015, equipping me with a solid foundation in financial risk analysis and mitigation strategies. I obtained a matric certificate from Lenyora la Thuto High School in 2013, demonstrating a commitment to education and foundational knowledge in various subjects.

In 2015, I have worked at Pele Ea Pele Auditors, where I gained valuable experience in auditing procedures and financial analysis. This experience provided me with solid attention to detail and an analytical mindset, crucial skills in the field of risk assessment.

I Recently worked as a cashier at USave Shoprite from 2021 to 2022, developing excellent customer service and cash handling skills. In 2022, I served as an assistant teacher for the Department of Education, further honing my communication and organizational abilities while contributing to the educational development of students.

Driven by an entrepreneurial spirit, I established my own company, GEE, and GEE Promotion and Events, in December 2022. As the founder, I have taken on diverse responsibilities, including business development, client relationship management, and event planning. This venture has allowed me to showcase my creativity, leadership, and problem-solving skills in a dynamic and competitive industry.

With a strong foundation in risk assessment, banking operations, and event promotion, I bring a unique blend of skills to any professional setting. I am highly motivated, adaptable, and strive for excellence in all endeavors. Seeking new opportunities where I can leverage my experience and passion for risk management, entrepreneurship, and event planning to drive organizational growth and success.
