What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a graphic design job where I can contribute creatively to a team and further develop my skills as a designer.

I recently graduated with a degree in BA Graphic Design from Eduvos and I am extremely comfortable with the Adobe Creative Suite software.

I have been freelancing for the past few months while teaching myself Blender via an online course. Now that I have finished the course I am looking to add myself to a team where I can contribute my skills.

I am self motivated and I love learning new things. I work hard and take pride in doing my work properly. I am a team player and will always try to elevate the team.
