What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I want a job which will challenge me as I'm a person who likes challenges. I wanna be able to see how far it can build me as a person so that I know my capabilities and use them to my best advantage. I really believe challenges are there to build every individual to become better. I'm such a hard working individual who doesn't mind going an extramile for what they love. So with any job I will get, I'm going to make sure that the working environment becomes healthy and I will do my best to get along with everyone I work with as I highly believe that team work really does wonders and as individuals we should always aim to stick together through any obstacle.
