What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Prevent Trespassing: Guards can prevent unauthorized individuals from entering a property or area, thereby reducing the risk of intruders.

Legal Authority: Armed guards, in particular, have the legal authority to use force when necessary, providing an additional layer of security in high-risk environments.

Emergency Preparedness: Security personnel often undergo training in emergency response, which can be invaluable in cases of natural disasters, terrorist threats, or other crises.

Customized Security: Security services can be tailored to specific needs and risks, ensuring that the level of security is appropriate for a given situation.

Peace of Mind: The presence of security guards can give employees, residents, or visitors peace of mind, knowing that their safety and security are a priority.

Crime Investigation: In the event of a security breach, security guards can provide valuable information to law enforcement for subsequent investigations.

Reduced Liability: Employing security guards may reduce an organization's liability in the event of accidents or security incidents, as they can demonstrate due diligence in providing a safe environment.
