What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for waitress job. I am not working at the moment so i would be honoured to have a waitress job because I am keen on helping people and their needs. I have no experience but i am a very professional when it comes to working and understanding people. I can be a good fit for any waitress job. When i get the job i will definitely make sure that i uplift the team to greater heights because of my kindness.
