What job i'm looking for? My positive points

As a matric learner, currently waiting for her results my wish is to find a Job by December so I can make money. I think I should be hired as because I am a hard worker, and I come with positive impact and the employer won't spend more time monitoring and closely supervising me. I am not confident through public speaking, but that will not stop me from sharing my great ideas and engaging with other employees.
