What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a part-time work from home job to earn an extra income. I am currently working full time while studying afterhours. I have experience in data capturing, can use excel and word and I can also work independently. I am a filing clerk at the moment. I handle the archive room on my own and the admin department's filing system I also do by myself. I would love the extra income to invest towards future studies and assets like a car or house.
