

Christine Van Den Berg

Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am someone who takes accountability while working independently and I have a high attention to detail. My main skill is being able to reconcile accounts using good excel skills and logic and this has taken me very far in both the companies I've worked for in the last 17 years.

I have also been able to use my organisational ability to re-organise, develop and manage a small team to optimise our time in order to deal with a doubled workload.

I am a loyal employee who always tries to work towards the goals of the company even if there is resistance to my efforts.

I am looking for a new opportunity mainly to work closer to home in the Northern Suburbs. Although I would appreciate a good package, I am currently more focused on working for the right company and achieving a better work/life balance.
