

Aaliya Patel

Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Since childhood, my fascination with science has been evident, from backyard experiments to pursuing a degree in Biomedical Science at Eduvos. This journey reflects my passion for laboratory work, a passion I now wish to channel into contributing to a team as a research scientist.

Over the past three years, my academic focus has shaped my skills in the lab, instilling confidence that I can deliver results aligned with company's standards. I am eager to bring my hardworking nature and adaptability to any organization, recognizing their significance.

Joining a team allows me to share and discuss findings collaboratively, fostering a collective knowledge base.

In my career, my dream is to contribute significantly to cutting-edge research and make impactful discoveries in the field of Biomedical Science. I aspire to continually develop my skills, collaborate within a dynamic team, and contribute meaningfully to advancements that improve lives.
