Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

As a recent University graduate, I know that what I'm lacking is career experience. However, I have used my time at university to develop many of the required skills for this job. For example, after interning in four different organizations and managing a full course load while also working at the university's admissions office, I learned how to multitask and prioritize responsibilities. From what I understand, in your fast-paced organization, the abilities to effectively prioritize tasks and work with self-discipline are significant components of success.
