What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Being in the fitness industry has always been at the top of the chart for me as I started playing rugby and I moved from rugby to bodybuilding and powerlifting and I've been hooked ever since. So helping people reach their desired body goals through fitness is what makes me happy. Knowing that I can help people learn new movements throughout exercise is fun and makes me happy to know I've helped someone work to a healthier life style. So being a fitness instructor is my most preferred job.
