Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

With a solid background in finance and human resources, I believe that this unique amalgamation of skills sets me apart from other candidates. Throughout my career in the human resources sector, I have found great fulfilment in the ability to positively impact individuals' lives. Facilitating change and fostering meaningful relationships with colleagues has been the most rewarding aspect of my professional journey thus far.

I am confident that my expertise and passion for both finance and human resources would make me a valuable asset to any team. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to and further develop my skills in a dynamic and progressive environment.

Following my retrenchment from the HR space, I was offered a position in the claims department. While this new role represented a demotion, I embraced it as a valuable learning opportunity. This experience has afforded me the chance to gain in-depth knowledge of the insurance industry, enhancing both my skills and expertise.
