Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Throughout my career, I have honed my skills in creating innovative designs that not only meet but exceed client expectations. My experience spans two years, during which I have successfully managed projects ranging from residential to commercial spaces. I pride myself on my ability to understand clients' needs and translate their vision into reality, ensuring every design is both practical and visually stunning.

Professionally, I am proficient in a variety of design software including Revit, SketchUp, and various others. These tools have been instrumental in bringing my ideas to life and facilitating effective communication with clients and contractors alike. I am also adept at creating detailed renderings and presentations that convey design concepts clearly and convincingly.

In my previous role, I spearheaded several high-profile projects that received acclaim for their innovation and functionality. One such project involved the designing and execution of a Tile Showroom in Menlyn, South Africa. This experience has not only sharpened my technical skills but also enhanced my ability to collaborate effectively within multidisciplinary teams.

What sets me apart is my dedication to staying abreast of industry trends and technological advancements. I am committed to continuous learning and regularly attend workshops and seminars to expand my knowledge base and refine my skills.
