What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for GENERAL JOB, to the company that Will consider my application here's my letter.

I firstly would like to thank you for the opportunity to apply for your available position.

I pride my life's work on providing my employer excellent work ethic from start to end. I personify a go-getter's attitude and I am constantly striving to better myself by regularly venturing outside of my comfort zone. I have an easy-going personality and I excel working both in a team and individually. I believe that I am the best candidate for this role for several reasons, but more specifically because of my loyalty and dedication to going above and beyond in my work. I am committed to learning any new skills on my own in this role.

I look forward to hearing from you soon, Kind regards
