Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am a young and colourful individual who enjoys learning new experiences, which includes meeting new people and learning about different cultures. I have been fortunate to have interacted with different people from different backgrounds.

I was in the process of completing my accounting degree (third year level - 2016) but due to financial constraints I had to put that on hold. My time as a student helped me master the art of working under pressure, systematically and also helped sharpen my computer skills (Microsoft Office), as we were given sufficient training on Word, Excel and PowerPoint.

My interaction with different people in my various team member and leadership roles has helped me to master the art of dealing with different personalities as well as effective communication.

During my time as a netball captain and a community and culture committee member (University Residence), I had to overcome the challenge that comes with leading people who are your peers. I learnt that respect is a two way road and a smile always saves the day.

I have done public speaking as a school extramural activity, which gave me the confidence to address people in an according manner. As a community and culture committee member I often had to report back to the residence as a whole which further sharpened my effective communication skills.

Despite my limited experience, I am open minded and I'm eager to learn new things.
