What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Dear Sir /Madam

we all follow a stream and somewhat we add value to not just our but other people's lives. You must think why is this woman starting her sentences in such a manner but is it not a team leaders duty to get to know each individual within a team to get only the best out of your team?. On that note it takes an organized person who is active in a proactive way within a team to see sufficient results according to growth as a team within a company/organization systematically the company will establish new heights. See that I am a jack of all trades take it into account that work must be done with pride in a proud and neath manner. So as I explained myself I will gladly await on a setting date for an interview.

Kindest Regards E.Coetzee

I am currently doing a Principal of Human Resource subject and I must say it dont bore or make me want to fall asleep. It got to do with understanding and satisfying the human needs when it is we who demand a certain brand and how and what it should look like. Got me thinking but I am only doing the basic knowledge thereof, but it is a stimulating exercise for my brain.
